CALLING ALL COMMUNITY LEADERS

If I'm a business or Not-For Profit Leader?

- Connect with prospective employees (think energy, drive, education and ambition)
- Start building a relationship with future community leaders - invite them to be your boosters, patrons and customers
- Tap into their views, priorities, values and concerns about life in C-K - Know your market
- Tell your story to people who will pass it on in new and creative ways

If I'm a Representative of a Volunteer Organization?

- Tell your story. Describe your mission and point out why being involved with your group will be interesting, fun and enhance our quality of life
- Ask for their advice on how to make your work and your group more meaningful to young, well educated members of the community
- Describe your need for energy, enthusiasm and leadership
- Explain and offer opportunities for their involvement and career enhancing learning experiences

If I'm a Service Provider?

- Explain how your services can enhance the quality of life for young professionals and make them more successful
- Gain new contacts
- Refer your new contacts to others who have used your services
- Share opportunities for youth involvement in the planning, delivery and evaluation of your services
