

FREE FAMILY FESTIVAL – AUG 25, 2012

THE CITY OF WINDSOR COMMEMORATES

the WAR of 1812

‘THE CAPTURE OF DETROIT’

10:00 AM

Gather at the Duff Baby House (221 Mill) in Olde Sandwich Towne to join a Symbolic March to Festival Plaza in downtown Windsor.
Announcement of War of 1812 Mural Project Contest Winner(s)

Noon

Main Stage at Festival Plaza

The Greater Windsor Concert Band performs
Opening Ceremony with dignitaries
Antler River First Nations drum and dance
Same Latitude As Rome performs
Poet Laureate Marty Gervais debuts 1812 poems

Gone Wrong performs
Queens Diamond Jubilee Awards presented to 14 community members

Vendors & Exhibitors

Faire Tyme Toys offer interpreters, storytelling, toys & games
Essex County Historical Society offer book sales & signings

Face Painting

John R. Park Homestead offer interpreters, period games, toys and weaving
Peter Rindlisbacher displays and sells 1812 paintings

Windsor Public Library offers a Genealogy tent and mobile library cart

North American Black History Museum displays on Black involvement in the War of 1812

Windsor's Community Museum – Mini-display on the War of 1812 in the Windsor area

Photo Booth - offering 1812-costumed photographs for families

Shako Hats - assemble your own War of 1812-style hat

HMCS Hunter – boat display, interactive display, rope tying, flag reading, etc.

Stilt Guys – General Brock and Chief Tecumseh... ON STILTS!!!

Tourism Windsor Essex Pelee Island – On site to promote events across our Region

6:00 PM

THE WINDSOR SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

LIVE onstage at Festival Plaza

